The Strange Star

Rosie loved watching the night sky. It shined with so many stars. Sometimes, she would climb onto Papa's shoulders. She'd feel like a princess, sitting closer to those stars. One afternoon, Papa said, "We're going to the beach! Won't that be fun?" Rosie wasn't sure. "Will my stars be there, too?" "Maybe," Papa said. So they went to the beach. But it was foggy that night – no stars in sight. "Let's see what happens tomorrow," Papa said. "Okay…" Rosie frowned. The next morning, they went back to the beach and Rosie gathered seashells. Rosie found something strange. It looked like a big, orange, bumpy star. Had it fallen from the sky? And why wasn't it glowing? "It's not a star." Papa smiled. "It's a starfish. It lives in the ocean." Rosie put the starfish in the ocean. They watched the waves wash it back home. Then Rosie looked for more starfish. She liked stars and starfish.

In India, people celebrate the festival of Holi (pronounced "hoh-lee") in March. This festival occurs after the wheat harvest. Wheat is used to make many important food items in India. Holi celebrates the triumph of good over evil.

Holi is a very bright celebration. People light bonfires, tell stories, and cover each other in a variety of coloured powders. These powders are called 'gulal' (pronounced "goo-lahl"). People are then sprayed with water, and everyone becomes a beautiful, brightly coloured mess. This custom of colouring people comes from a legend about a trickster who loved to trick his friends by pouring coloured water on them.
